Abbreviations and notes

Double Seed stitch:

Row 1-2. [K1, P1] across.

Row 3-4. (RS) [P1, K1] across.

Repeat Rows 1-4 to work Double Seed stitch.

Mossy is worked in the round, to avoid seaming where possible. The body is worked seamlessly to the underarms, and worked flat for the fronts and back. The sleeves are worked seamlessly, then seamed at the shoulders to provide extra support. The collar is then picked up and knitted in the round, for a professional finish. Mossy also has oversized sleeves with a slight balloon effect.

BODY

Using 12mm needles, cast on 80[86:94]sts using the long-tail cast on technique. Join in the round, taking care not to twist your stitches.

Work in 1x1 rib for 5 rows.

Change to 15mm needles.

Next row: Decrease evenly along row to 72[78:84]sts in Double Seed stitch.

Continue working in Double Seed stitch until your work measures 14½ ins (37cm) from the cast on edge.

You will now work the back and front sections separately, working back and forth.

Front panel

Rejoin the yarn and work Double Seed stitch across the remaining 34[36:40]sts.

Using your yarn tail attached to the front panel, seam front and back panels at the shoulders, using the horizontal invisible seam technique. Weave in the ends.

Repeat Step 1 for the other shoulder seam.

Using 12mm needles, pick up and knit 30[32:34]sts around the neckline 14[15:16] along the back, 16[17:18] across the front. Work 1x1 rib for 4 rows. Cast off. Weave in the ends.

Using your yarn tail attached to the sleeve, sew the sleeves into the armhole using the vertical invisible seam technique. Take care not to pull the seam too tightly to case it to pucker. Weave in the ends.

Repeat Step 4 for the other sleeve.
